WORKSHOP SCHEDULED IN MISSOULA ON
ETHICAL DECISIONS IN AN INSTITUTION

MISSOULA--

A one-day workshop on institutions and ethical decision making for health care professionals will be held on Friday, Oct. 22, from 8 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. at St. Patrick Hospital in Missoula.

Topics include conflicting ethical values in institutions; science and compassion: to treat or not to treat; and how to make ethical decisions.

The seminar is offered through the Center for Continuing Education at the University of Montana and six hours of continuing education credits are available.

Speakers at the seminar are Ronald Large, visiting instructor of religious studies at UM; Phillip D. Pallister, director of the genetics and birth defects unit of the Shodair Children's Hospital in Helena; and Lawrence T. Reilly, director of the office of medical morals of the Sisters of Providence Corporation in Seattle.

The registration fee is $35 and the deadline is Oct. 19. There will be a $5 additional fee for registration at the door.

For more information, call or write Judy Jones, Center for Continuing Education, 125 Main Hall, University of Montana, Missoula, MT 59812; (406) 243-6486.
